Customer Reviews

It saddens me to write this. I love daily inspirational or motivational. I order them early to make sure I get the ones I want, those with great reviews and reputations. And I don't look at them until New Year's Eve. Big mistake on this one. The quotes are well-curated. Some of the design decisions, such as thin white type on an orange background are questionable, but that's a matter of individual taste. But the binding? It is awful, giving new meaning to poor quality. I suspect it will be split in the first week and probably in multiple places. I suspect I'll be putting a rubber band around the pages in the not distant future. Color me disappointed - but there is a light at the end of the tunnel. I posted my lament on one of TF Publishing's social media pages and received a response from the company on New Year's Eve no less. They said they'll look into the issue in the coming week, so maybe the binding issue can be resolved. I certainly hope so. Jerry

Glue that binds the calendar was detached so it is now in paper that is chunked for parts of January and through September.

I look forward to reading a new quote each day and share the ones that mean something to me with my friends.

Love daily quotes. Keeps me inspired. I look forward to each day to see what the quote will be. It is helping me stay positive when I feel doubtful.
