Customer Reviews

Love love love this planner! I have tried other planners before and will only ever buy the Mom's Manager. This is the second year that I have used this brand of planner and could not be happier. There is the right amount of room for each day of the week and weekly notes are a plus. I like the tips and other information provided for each month. Plastic cover and pocket is great for holding notes, stickers for the calendar, etc.

Don't love it. It is very flimsy and doesn't have tabs to help navigate through the planner. That doesn't sound like a big deal but when you're hunting for a date three months in, you're going to be flipping around it for awhile. I like the little helpful hints it gives you like conversions for liquids and such but overall, I'm not a huge fan

I've never been in the habit of carrying a planner. I've used a Moms calendar but found it difficult to keep up with appointments for my entire family. The idea of entering them in my smartphone & transferring them to my calendar wasn't working. I love that this calendar gives me a view of the month in addition to a look at the week. There's plenty of room to make notes for my entire family.

I love this agenda! It is on the large side, but perfect of the on-the-go family. It is a full 17 months which is great for putting in all the school year dates and activities. Plenty of room to write and add notes. I will be buying this agenda for years to come. I really like the format and the size of it.

I bought this because of the rave reviews and I was less than impressed. I give it 3 stars because it is an average planner filled with stuff that is not terribly helpful. Thus far, the only helpful hint I've found from it was heating a firm citrus fruit in the microwave for a few seconds will help draw the juice out of it. The company I typically purchase my planner from ended up going out of business for expansion reasons. I really enjoyed the ability to make grocery lists each week, write important contact info, make notes, larger calendar space, etc. I expected more from a mom manager. I don't even have a pocket for my stuff! It's really flimsy too, which makes it slippery and falls all over the place.

im honestly not really wild about this planner ive actually considered buying a different one because I don't like the way its set up its also thick and the wire bends easily making it hard to turn the pages sometimes
