Flowers Page-A-Day Gallery Calendar 2016

Synopsis

Every day, adorn your desktop with fresh, vibrant flowers. A celebration of nature's most exquisite blossoms, Flowers showcases a lively assortment of garden shots, wildflowers in their native habitats, studio portraits, vintage botanical prints, and lush bouquets—all in sumptuous full color. Pink rhododendrons bloom in a misty redwood forest. Yellow Persian buttercups on a sunny windowsill. A gorgeous arrangement of pansies and lilies of the valley in an elegant silver vase. And a portrait of an exotic moth orchid. For the flower lover, it's a year of extraordinary beauty and delight.

Customer Reviews

Previous year calendars were fantastic. Didn't love this one as much. Not as much variety of color. Lots of pink which I am not a fan of. My husband and I had a joke- 'guess what tomorrow's color is... pink!' The purpose of this calendar is visual so that is what I am reviewing. Yes I am picky!

The photography is stunning!! I love flowers and was pleasantly surprised by how gorgeous the photos are, and how varied... everything from mountain wildflowers to purple roses in a milk pitcher to an exquisite yellow orchid. I look forward to seeing a new bloom every day and will save my favorites to hang as wall art. I enjoy this calendar so much that I've ordered another as a gift... highly recommend for any flower-lover!

I was pleasantly surprised by the quality of this calendar. Last year I got a Somee page-a-day calendar. I did find it to be hilarious, however sometimes I had to skip days because the message was too vulgar to leave up on my desk. This calendar is beautiful and much larger than I was anticipating - as I did not pay attention to the dimensions. I also like that you don't have to tear off each page. They are loose in a clear case and you just move a page to the back each day. (The other side is the last 6 months of the year.) It's a really cheery addition to my desk. Very pleased.

What immediately struck me was how large and beautiful the photos are. Secondly the quality. The pages are loose leaf. No ripping and tearing like most calendars. You put the used page in the back behind the others then in 6 months you turn them all around for the last half of the year's photos. The photos are a variety of close up, vase, landscape, etc which I appreciate. They are all so pretty. I have a little something to look forward to each day. Each page has the name and description of the flower. The pages are housed in sturdy plastic that makes it easy to pull up the page and slip it in the back, as you start a new day. I attached a photo of last year's France calendar, by a competitor. You will see how much smaller the photo is! Page-A-Day is 7" high and the popular competitor is not even 5.5" high. Also, the date and description on the Flowers calendar is above the photo leaving the pretty flower photo unblemished. It really makes a difference. I'm excited about my new flower calendar!

I haven't been able to find a calendar that is fun, eye catching, or perks me up everyday. I love nice pictures of nature. I saw this, it's different flowers per day! You take one out a day, put it in way back. So when halfway year you flip it around and do it again. I will be keeping this even after year is up just because flowers are so beautiful plus it has names for every flower and where they grow. Wonderful information

Got tired of the trite cat photos, so I tried this one. Unfortunately, about half the photos are of floral landscapes, and I thought from the cover that it would be mainly closeups of individual blossoms. Nice, but I'll try something else next year.

I love this calendar! I've had many from the same company over the years but this is my first year with the flower calendar. It's even more beautiful than I imagined. I'd expected photos of flowers in vases, very typical and while there are these types of photographs there are many more of gardens and fields full of flowers. The landscape pictures are spectacular. I am very pleased indeed.

I purchase this 365 Page-A-Day calendar for my aunt every Christmas. She keeps it in her kitchen to brighten her morning! She loves it, and the pictures are absolutely beautiful. Perfect gift for anyone!
