Customer Reviews

A laminated front and back fold-out for young readers to have hours of enjoyment creating their own horse dramas with the colorful reusable stickers. In addition to acting out horse scenes, children will learn interesting information about the care of horses such as feeding, grooming, mucking out a stall, how to be safe around horses, the ground manners, tacking up, and types of riding. The 80 reusable stickers along with the Horse play tips in each topic is fun and excellent learning about horses that children will want to play over and over for ages 4 to 8. New horse dramas are endless as far as the child's imagination will go. Excellent play while you learn book.

Excellent book purchased as gift for horse loving grandson/he takes it on trips, names all the animals and creates additional stories/fun and educational.

I bought this book for my now nine year old daughter three years ago and she still loves to play with it. The stickers are great quality. They're durable, nicely drawn and they've lasted for years of peeling and reapplying. She likes to layer the stickers upon each other to dress the horses in saddles and bridles and then "blanket them while they wait to be ridden on cold days." We keep the stickers in a zip-lock baggie tucked inside the book to keep them together since there is no storage system in the book. Highly recommend. I wish this book came in other subjects also apart from horses and farm animals so my construction equipment loving son could have one this good.

This was a hit with my 4-year old niece. The re-usable aspect and several background settings make the kit appealing for repeated sessions of play. This book held its appeal over time and is still an asked-for favorite.

My daughters like this, but get tired of having to glue the stickers to keep them in the book instead of peeling off all the time. I know they're supposed to be repositionable, but they just don't stay overly well.
