Customer Reviews

We just received this book today and I decided that tonight was a good of a night as any to read it to my 3 year old. As we are sitting in her room on her bed reading it she looks at me and says "Mommy Oliver is such a nice little boy". This book is a great story for kids and teaches them that it pays off to be kind to everyone and that there is always a positive to every situation. I would highly recommend this book to anyone who has children and or grandchildren who love for you to read them bedtime stories. I know that this book is going to be read in our house quite a bit. My daughter told me at the end of the book "I really liked that story". Two thumbs up for this book!!

I bought this book for my grandson who is 15 months old so he is a little young for the entire storyline at this time. I read the book and it is a great story with a fantastic message on friendship and determination. The book is beautifully illustrated as well. This is a great addition to his book collection. I am sure there is more to Oliver Brightside's adventures to write about!!

Beautifully illustrated an entertaining storyline while teaching life lessons. Every child should have their parents read this book to them. I loved it

Well written Christopher Manzo! Hey Evelyn, cool you panties off! I'm not a relative, girlfriend, or a grandma (hope to be one day). I picked up the book and started reading it while waiting for my daughter, it has such a wonderful uplifting message that resonates everyone who reads it. I don't get it...you leave a one star review? I think you need to eat a cannoli (or two) to sweeten that heart of yours! You go Christopher & Oliver, don't let hurtful words stop your creativity!

LOVE IT!! WRITING IS EXCELLENT AND THE ILLUSTRATIONS ARE WONDERFUL ALSO!! GIFT FOR MY FOUR YEAR OLD NEPHEW AND HE WAS SO INTERESTED AND REALLY ENJOYS IT.....HE READS IT OVER AND OVER....HE IS GIFTED.

I thought this was a charming book, suitable for a wide range of ages, and delightfully illustrated. I am happy to recommend this book highly, and am looking forward to the next work from this up-and-coming author!

Great Job Christopher honestly I read a few pages and have to tell you beautifully written and hope your success on your next publication... As for you Evelyn shame on you I would hope his father and everyone in his family wrote a review for him all hard work deserves acknowledgment especially from your family. Regardless of what he said not that I agreed but Christopher is entitled to his opinion it doesn't not take away from what a wonderful job he's done on this venture and I hope people respect it an don't judge a children's publish on that... Sorry I normally don't even write reviews Evelyn put me on a sour note....

Who should be allowed to write a children's book? Should the prerequisite be that the author be perfect in word and deed? If that were so, there wouldn't be any children's books. Or should it be the desire to foster children's imaginations, be a positive influence, or perhaps, just make them giggle? Our children are bombarded constantly with negative influences. As parents, even we fall short as role models. Our attitudes, how we look at life, are a huge determining factor in how happy we will be. Christopher Manzo believes this deeply, thus he created the character Oliver Brightside. Chris's desire to be a positive force for children in a very negative world is an admirable one, and is needed more now than ever. As for Al Manzo writing a glowing review he's proud of his boy. When did that become a crime?
