Customer Reviews

My grandson loves sharks these days as well as stickers so this title was a perfect gift for him. National Geographic books are always beautifully printed and well put together. I know - I work for one of their printers!

I bought for my 3.5 year old to entertain him on a long flight. I had to help him a lot as the pages have specific stickers that go with them, but there are a lot of fun facts and pictures for us to look at while he stickered and it kept him busy for a quite a while.

I love all national geographic sticker activity books. sooo many stickers. I got addiction to stickers. and these books excite me every time I get them. the sharks one is awesome alot of different fishes.

Excellent activities for my son who loves everything shark
