My 3 year old loves this book despite not knowing how to read yet. Its hard to find the "Diesel 10" character in Thomas books. Even though Diesel 10 is a "Bad guy", my son likes him so I thought this book would be perfect.

This is my kids' FAVORITE Golden Book. We read it several times a week. It's a longer one- don't buy this book expecting a short Thomas book like "Blue Train, Green Train" or "A Crack In The Track"- but has a solid plot and a typical Thomas moral. For kids who are looking for stories featuring Belle, Flynn and Diesel 10, look no farther.

Thomas and the fire engines are goody-goodies. Percy is a naïve fool. Diesel 10 is a menacing jerk. Nothing in life (except chewing gum and ramen noodles) is cheaper than a Little Golden Book. What do you have to lose? My kid loves this crap.

purchased as a gift for my two year old grandson. He has really enjoyed the book. His mom said she had to read it to him three times in a row. It has beautiful pictures and a cute story. Diesel 10 is his favorite engine right now so it was great to find a book with him in it.

we love thomas the train in our home and this book was written based on one of our fav features thomas has. my son loves reading this book with his imagination or having it read to him he is three and this was a great buy to add to his loved book collection.

This book is so jumbled and the story has no flow. It is really sexist. The girl train that saves the day says she isn't a hero and that they should all meet the real hero a fire engine (that didn't even do anything to put out the fire!). We are getting rid of this book but don't even want to donate it because of how horrible the values are!

This was a birthday gift for our 4 year old grandson who absolutely loves "Thomas the Train!" He loved the book and seemed happy to have another to add to his collection!

I always love the little golden book series because they're more comprehensive and tells a full story. Love this one like the others!
