Some funny stuff here. Gave it as a Christmas gift. Yes, it was a jab at people who shop Walmart (and yes, I am one of them) but I would have laughed at the photos no matter what store they would have come out of. The cynical side of me wondered if, and how many were engineered.

We get this calendar every year. It is unbelievable what some people will wear and think it looks good. Hilarious outfits and sometimes lack of enough. Always done tastefully but it gives myself and my husband laughs first thing in the morning. What better way to start the day.

this is the best daily calendar i've ever bought. all these are not only funny pictures in color, but they have a funny caption with them. these are a hit at my job. will definitely purchase again next year.

this is the best way to raise your spirits daily and remind yourself you are probably in the normal group still.....unless you are looking for your own picture in there, and in that case, i have no words for you!

If you are expecting funny pictures.... don't, it's mostly just pictures of unsuspecting women who needed something on their way to the beach or lake. Thought it could be fun for my desk at work, turns out 5-6 days out of the week it will be something that will make you feel like a pervert for owning, not sure why I haven't just tossed it in the trash. There are plenty of things that happen at Walmart that are funny and not perverted. I mean how would you feel if people made calendars of your teenage daughters A.

My mother gave me this as a gag last year because I am known for doing almost anything to avoid setting foot in Wally World. The images in this calendar are why I am willing to pay more, drive an extra five miles away or wait a few days on internet shipping to avoid crossing that threshold. The calendar has held up well after almost a whole year. It's made us laugh, cringe and gag throughout the past year as well. Some of the photos are repetitive, but that's fine...this is not high art after all.

If only the color commentaries did the pictures justice. The pictures could be MUCH more funny if the right wording went with them. Oh well, still a funny daily detailing the horrors that are Walmart patrons!

OMG, This is hilarious... priceless pictures for a bargain at . I sent one of these abroad to my cousin and they laugh so much over the phone saying they want to come for a vacation to Florida. So they did and the first thing they wanted to go to was Walmart. We took them to supercenter in Fort Lauderdale near Atlantic Blvd around midnight and they were lucky enough to experience Walmart people by themselves in real. Congratulations for calendar editors good job!- Chenquieh
