Customer Reviews

Couldn't find this one last year and had to use a poor substitute. Went searching for this one since my friend and I love it and found it on for both of us Hooray! I should add that unlike some, this calendar has separate pages for Saturday and Sunday, so you get 365 puzzles. They also have a free offer that will give you a Sudoku on your computer each day. All in all, much the best in my opinion.

I buy my brother in law a Sudoku calendar each year for Christmas. He finds them challenging because there are different skill levels. He won't quit a puzzle until he gets it finished. He is pretty good at it. It a good challenge for those who love Sudoku.

Bought the 2014 Page a Day Calendar for our son last year and received a request for another for the 2015 year. First item of the day over a cup of coffee to complete the daily puzzle. Great item. Thank you.

I was very happy to see that the 2015 version of Sudoku Page has gone back to having the easy puzzles on the weekend. The 2015 calendar is set up as follows: Monday - Easy Tuesday - Medium Wednesday - Medium Thursday - Hard Friday - Hard Saturday - Very Easy Sunday - Easy. The Saturday and Sunday puzzles are on the same page, which means small squares. Since both Saturday and Sunday are easier puzzles, this isn't as much of an issue with having to write in numbers. I can usually figure out the patterns without having to write in numbers. The weekday pages have big squares so you have plenty of room to write in potential numbers. If you are looking for a fun way to challenge your brain, you will enjoy this calendar. You don't need to be a math genius; all you need to do is to be able to apply logic.

I've bought this calendar for a gift for a specific person who likes to start her day off with a mental challenge for the last three years. The Page-a-Day Calendar company is amazing and they do a great job providing challenging Sudoku puzzles for those - unlike me - who enjoy them.

The best thing about this is that it is truly a page at a time. I can take the weekend out early to play as well as pre-play vacation days. Others are glued together so you don't really have that option.

I just love doing sudoku especially in my spare time. Wherever I go I must carry my sudoku with me because it keeps my brain going and I have something to do while I'm idle. I try to work one everyday.

Great fun and challenging. Have used the calendars three years in a row, and appreciate the inclusion of more medium and hard puzzles; however, the combination of Saturday and Sunday puzzles on one page is too small and too crowded.....expansion, please.
