My daughter is a huge fan of the Wimpy Kid books, and loves mad libs, so I got this for her (it would also make a great and affordable stocking stuffer). It's funny, and cheaper here on Amazon, if you can even find it. It's 48 pages with titles like The school dance, and Roderick's School Report. There aren't many of the cute wimpy kid sketches in the book, just the same one on each page. What I do like, is on the back of each mad libs page, there is a list of the words you need. You can fill out this page if alone, then fill it in on the mad libs page; that way, you don't see the story that you are making up the words for.

Length: 1:41 Mins

If your child is a Diary of A Wimpy Kid reader, chances are he or she also has a strong imagination and sense of creativity. Put those to good use with this worthy addition to the Mad Libs amusing library of fill-in-the-blanks story books. Mad Libs are of course fun in pairs or group, but the titles aimed at younger participants also include an amazing modification to the traditional model - the ability for solo play. To accommodate solo play, each story is preceded on a separate page by blank lines to be filled in with nouns, verbs, etc. in a list so you can't see the story on the next page. Once you've filled them in you transfer them to the story page and enjoy. Although my son and I rate this 5 stars, it might rate 4 stars for someone not familiar with the Diary Of A Wimpy Kid books. You will lose just a little something of the context of the stories.

I love when books sneak some learning into the fun. This is a great way to review your parts of speech while creating interesting, entertaining stories in the process. Works well in a group setting, as well as for individuals.

My son is a huge diary of a wimpy kid fan, and also loves doing mad libs. This is the best of both worlds, and these keep him busy for a while. He loves doing them, and I love that he loves them. Great value! A+

My oldest daughter is a huge Diary of a Wimpy Kid fan, so I thought this would make a nice add to her collection. I bought this for Christmas, and it arrived in perfect condition. She initially didn't know what "Mad Libs" was, but I did a few with her to get her started and we had SO much fun that my younger daughter wanted to join in too! This ended up being a great idea, not just for family fun, but it has also helped them both with their nouns, adjectives, adverbs etc and they've enjoyed reading them. We played all of them in a matter of 2 days, so I've now ordered additional Mad Libs books for them to enjoy. I highly recommend these for kids ages 8-12.

My son is enjoying his Mad Libs, Wimpy Kid style. This is fun for adults to play as well. It's amazing how different a story can turn out by leaving out key words and asking participants to fill them in with no knowledge of the content of the story. Some of the results are uncanny, and there are plenty of opportunities for kids to get silly and creative with this. This is fun for all ages, my son enjoys it, and it reinforces the parts of speech. Plus, it's Wimpy Kid, so what's not to love? I paid full price for this item. All opinions are my own.

A Christmas stocking surprise for our 9 year old grandson who had never done any Mad Libs. Once he understood the premise, he had a wonderful time having us all contribute. He laughed at the stories each time. When we left, he was sitting next to his brother, heads together, creating the next story. What a memory!!

My step daughter loves mad libs and she likes diary of a wimpy kid, so this hit both in one. This made an excellent christmas gift. This was shipped very fast and received before christmas as promised with the prime shipping.
