Synopsis

Vickie Howell, host of the DIY Network's popular Knitty Gritty, cohost of Styleicious, and author of New Knits on the Block, shows teens of all types just how cool knitting can be! One glance at this fun volume (cleverly designed to look like a high school yearbook) will have every teen, from preppies to punks, grabbing for their knitting needles. That's because Vickie Howell has created something to appeal to every last one of them, whether they're in the drama club (theater mask hats), celebrating their first car (steering wheel, headrest, and seatbelt cozies), or heading for the track meet (athletic socks). Each hip, urban-styled project represents a different group, event, milestone, or interest; taken as a whole, they truly capture the diversity of the high school experience. Plus, Howell offers Knitting 101 for beginners, and ranks the projects by difficulty, from Freshman for the simplest to Varsity for those who enjoy a challenge. With her help, every young knitter will make the grade!

Customer Reviews

I ordered this book for the sock pattern in the book and I thought the book was so awful that I tore out the sock pattern and threw the rest of the book in the recycle bin. I haven't knit the socks to see if they were worth the price and postage of the book. The patterns in this book are just down right ugly.

I'm that one goth that every school has according to this book, you know there has to be always one cheerleader, one Jock, one hippie, one ballerina, and the rest are 'others' that sort of thing. Except in my time (2012) there are more than a hundred self-proclaimed alternative kids at given high school. So that part erks me where we all have to be categorized. Other than that I love Vickie Howell and I love all of the patterns. I probably have made more projects out of this one book than every other knitting book combined. I especially love the theater stocking caps, I feel like Ralphie from A Christmas Story!!

This book is fun to read around in, and has a few interesting projects. Mostly, the things are interesting but not actually anything I (or anyone I know) would knit. I did like the punk mini kilt; I wouldn't make it, I know people who would.

I bought this book for one pattern in it, the bat wing shawl! It is great for that young goth in your life.

I bought the book for the bat cape too....so excited to knit it up for Halloween!
