Who Is Steven Spielberg? (Who Was...?)

Synopsis

While other kids played sports, Steven Spielberg was writing scripts and figuring out camera angles. He went from entertaining his Boy Scout troop with home movies to amazing audiences around the world with epic blockbusters. He has directed four of the most successful films of all time and has won two Academy Awards for Best Director. From Jaws to Lincoln, young readers and aspiring filmmakers will be fascinated by the life of this famous director.

This is a great book and series, so read it! Support the authors! HOWEVER: This has a picture of a bunch of tarantulas (well, an illustration of them) so if you have arachnophobia, then be cautious! But other than that, it is excellent!

This is in a classroom reading library. The students love learning about everyday people. This is one of many and has proven to be a very popular non-fiction book. Getting kids to enjoy non-fiction is often challenging. Highly recommend these books. Steven and the pic of the shark was a big hit!

Steven Spielberg is a very cool person and it's fun to read about his passion for movies as a kid and how he grew up to become the most successful director of all time! If it weren't for Steven, lots of the great movies we know today as amazing and classics wouldn't have ever existed!

I loved it when I got it in the mail was a great book to read has a lot of facts on Steven Spielberg which is fantastic. I didn't know that he made Indiana Jones! SO COOL! I love it. So should you. (Written by 9 year old son) AWESOME!

I loved it it was a great book to read has a lot of facts on him which is great I just loved it

The biography is complete and interesting for young learners. I bought them for students who learn English as a second language and they are suitable for them.

Great Non-Fiction required in schools that the kids can learn from and relate to. This series is wonderful for quick non-fiction reads.
