Customer Reviews

Word to the wise: I like everything about this book except that 's description of the product indicated it (the paperback version) would be packaged with an accompanying CD. I did order the paperback; however, no CD was included.

My mom is a librarian now after nearly 30 years of teaching Kindergarten (five of which were spent teaching 1st thru 3rd grade). She does the story times at her library. She recommended these books to me for our two year-old daughter. Our daughter knows and loves these songs and the artwork is simply unmatched in Trapani books. You will not be disappointed with any of her books. Promise.

I have purchased almost all of the books written and beautifully illustrated by Iza Trapani for my numerous neices and nephews. They are loved by the kids as well as their parents. They particularly like Row Row Row Your Boat, which is the newest book in the collection. We anxiously await Ms. Trapani's next book!

Love Iza Trapani books and this one is no exception. She artfully & creatively adds verses to the children's songs we all know & love. I liked singing these books to my son when he was a newborn and now that he is getting old enough to look at the books, I sing them to him while he looks at the pictures. He likes the repetitive nature and having me sing to him. So sweet.

Iza Trapani takes the first verse we all know and love and expands it into a magical story. It engages kids of all ages with the wit, humor and beautiful illustrations to make this a very engaging book.

Iza Trapani's books are definitely a favorite in our household, we have purchased many of them. "How Much is That Doggie in the Window" and "Row Your Boat" are my absolute 2 favorites!! They are catchy and fun, can be sung, and the artwork is spectacular! This book will be one that is saved for generations to come.

I am fond of this author/illustrator in general, but this might be my favorite of her extended nursery rhymes. Sometimes her lyrics are a little awkward (but clever), in that the cadence isn't quite right. Not so with this one, it's how Row, Row, Row Your Boat should have been written all along.

Sadly, the CD was not included with this book as advertised. We were disappointed since my son listens to it at school and loves it. I felt like it was a bit expensive for just a used book, and when I contacted the company they did fully refund me. We love the book, however.
