Comes with a book of the songs, a cd & cassette. My oldest grandson had the original cassette when he was 3 or 4 years old. He loved it. He is now 17.I purchased this one for my 4 year old twin granddaughters. They love it as much today as the older one did 14 years ago.The songs are fun for kids to sing along with, and full of information about dinosaurs.

A nice collection of dinosaur songs perfect for any pre-schooler who likes dinosaurs. Mine was nuts about them and enjoyed these in the car. Reasonable value for money, especially as a lot of music for young children is overpriced for the content.

My son had this as a toddler twenty five years ago. My husband, both my children and I can still remember the words to "Big and Powerful". When our best friends grandson fell in love with dinosaurs and Didn't have this cd. I knew exactly what to buy for his birthday. I bought two copies so my "kids" could have one also. We loved this music.

I had this when my son was 6 years old, and he's 26! We used to listen to it endlessly in the car. We still remember the songs and sometimes we just start singing the ornithomimus song out of the blue. He cracked up laughing when I told him I found it for my grand daughter, We can't wait to get it!

Wee Sing Dinosaurs is filled with jazzy original recordings. The quality of the arrangements is excellent. I first bought the recording when my son was four years old. He loved the accompanying book and would try to read it along with the recordings. As a elementary teacher, I learned the songs with kinder and 5th grade students. The songs were challenging enough to hold the attention of the 5th graders, but warm enough so that the kinder kids were not left behind.

My 4 year old loves this CD. He also loves to sing along with me using the book. I love to have some old fashioned fun with kids "unplugged". It is really educational and it helps him to learn to read. My 4 year old didn't know anything about dinosaurs until this book. Now he knows quite some long names and fun facts about the dinosaurs. It also helps me to get all those long names of dinosaurs read correctly. :) To sum up, it may be too easy for older kids, but for my 4 year old. This is his favorite CD whenever we are in a car ride. My husband and I are also enjoying the nice music. Thanks a million Wee Sing!

This looked like a great pick for a 6 year old boy that loves dinosaurs and music. We got this for a long trip where we'd have plenty of time to appreciate something like this. By the fourth song, he asked us to turn it off and did not want to keep going or try it again later. A good idea, but didn't hit the mark for us. The music was of the "made for kids" sort that feels "not as good as the real thing," and the lyrics were not at all catchy (at least during the first 4 songs).

My daughter had this as a kid and I could not tell you how many times I had to listen to it. I bought it for her girls and now she knows what I went thru! They LOVE it as much as she did!!
