African American Quilts 2002: 16 Month

Synopsis

Chosen for their stunning graphic strength, the African-American quilts in this calendar are improvisational in nature. Their energy, their daring surprises, are achieved through astonishing design, piecing, and color. They exhibit pattern choices that may be traceable to African textile traditions. These 12 quilts hint at the broad variety found in this important American quilting tradition. The calendar includes a brief essay and a bibliography of books about quilts made by African Americans.
