Customer Reviews

This 7" x 9" teen devotional journal covers many aspects of a person's life. From friends to wisdom and honesty, missionary trips to dating and popularity, priorities to respect and forgiveness, this journal has something for everyone. There are 30 stories written by kids ranging from age 12 to 16. The stories are short, simple, and to the point. Following each story and Bible verse is about a page and a half of space to put down your thoughts. Then there are questions and another Bible verse related to the story with two more pages to continue your thoughts or answer the questions. This journal is mainly directed at teens or pre-teens, but many of the questions could be answered by anyone. This would be an excellent item for a family to sit down once a week and just read through it and answer the questions together. Younger kids could get a head start on dealing with stress, temptations, or even figuring out what talents they have. It is also a good item to take on a road trip. I really love this journal as it gives me freedom to write about my own ideas, yet it inspires me to write about many different topics.
