Customer Reviews

I purchased this calendar to grace a wall in my Tarot & Reiki studio. It's art is stunning with a fresh perspective. The images can take you far to other destinations existing in one's subconscious. I actually had to buy two calendars and will be placing the other elsewhere as I adored them both so much. Still, this one is my most favorite of all the calendars I've had over these past several years.

I chose this for myself as a calendar and am very pleased. I kind of wish it were a bit heavier paper stock, but the fact that the date portion is also printed with a matching artistic sort of background instead of on plain white is lovely and it looks very nice. I have had compliments on the first month's saying and artwork. It is nice to have something enjoyable to look at when you use it and see it everyday.

I have been ordering A Knock at the Door Calendars by Angi Sullins for several years. I usually order 2 - one to display and one to save. The fantasy/fairy tale inspired art is always gorgeous and the words are always inspiring.

I love the art and the motivational quotes on this calendar -- it could easily be a 5-star item for me if not for one important detail: the paper is very thin and the holes tear on about half the pages. I've taped them, but it really diminishes the look of the calendar. The same thing happened with last year's calendar. It hasn't been a problem with other calendars I've owned, so I'm on the fence as to whether or not I'll buy one for 2017.

This is such an enchanting calendar. I stumbled upon it last year and wanted this year's edition as well. The artistry and the wording and all the thought that goes into it is very inspiring. It's a treasure.

Imaginative, beautiful artwork that includes a quote to inspire. This is the third year I've bought one.

We've been buying one every year for four years now. We like that it's both eye-catching and able to blend in with our more fantasy themed décor (while still serving functionally as a calendar).

This is a beautiful calendar. The art is awesome and each month shows holidays of different countries, and phases of the moon. It is printed on recycled paper! I love it. â•†
