Customer Reviews

Nice book. Good pictures and 'story' on each page. I thought it was nice to search for the treasure in steps and read the story as you finish each maze. My 5 year old son loves everything pirates so I ordered this for him however the mazes were a bit difficult for him but he liked the story and pictures. Great for a kid a bit older.

Our eldest daughter started going through this book when she was 4 and found them to be a very challenging. With a little encouragement she would persevere and finish. She had finished all but a few and the book got put under a pile of stuff - recently, at 5-1/2 she sped through them. The maze on the cover is a good indication of how complicated the mazes are. The challenge is increased by trying to avoid certain hazards or trying to hit all points of a trail. The accompanying story for each one helps to get the child engaged. Look for free mazes online first (Google "free mazes") and once your child is accustomed to simple mazes, this is a good step up. I'd agree with the other review - far too easy for a 7-9 year old child.

This book is large - regular 8.5x11 size or close to it - not tiny like those little Dover books (which are good but quite small). This book has lots of mazes that are difficult enough to be interesting for my six year old without frustrating him.

My five year old loved doing the mazes in this book. He was so efficient that he finished it much quicker than I thought he would. It was challenging and he really enjoyed doing the mazes pirate themed.

I bought this book for my 5 year old son who LOVES doing mazes. He is generally very good at doing mazes, but these were pretty tricky for him. He can do them with some assistance, but he can't complete them independently. I would recommend this book (it does have an answer key in it), but it is more age appropriate for older kids.

My six year old Grandson loved it

I purchased this book for my grandson who loves mazes. He does them so quickly it is hard to find books that he hasn't already done. This was different and fun for him. He really liked the variety.

Have purchased several of these for our grandchildren. We use them when they come to visit or when camping. They are great for keeping them entertained. They range in age from 5 - 12.
