Howdy Kitty Lovers! These are charming little cat craft projects for the whole family to make! All that is needed are a pencil, scissors and a tiny bit of string or yarn. These fun kitty creations were made by the famous illustrator Evelyn Gathings (we love her work!!) Thanks for creating these EVELYN!! There is a beautiful white fur, PERSIAN PRINCESS, that has smokey gray eyes and wears a tiara! ELEGANT AND ROYAL!! We bow to her majesty! PETE THE PIRATE, who is a caramel brown tabby with light green/yellow eyes! PETE wears a BLACK EYE PATCH and an EARRING, so boys will love it! There's also a wonderful pirate hat that can be cut out, too! It's mainly black and gray, has the infamous skull and crossbone symbol and a group of fluffy feathers on top of it! It looks like something that a REAL pirate from long ago would have worn. I would have loved a kitty "skull and crossbones" but I guess that was too bizarre! There is a FLOWER GIRL kitty who is a golden eyed, cream colored pussycat! She wears all sorts of pretty flowers like pink roses, yellow and white daisies and marigolds all around her feminine feline face! There appears to be a delicate piece of lace drawn around her cheeks that is just darling! VERY PRETTY!! Then, there is the GYPSY CAT, CAMBRIA! She is a wide-eyed, blue-eyed, SIAMESE kitty who wears a salmon colored scarf around her head! She has a pair of gold earrings and her little brown ears stick out in between the cloth of the scarf! SO CUTE! There are gold coin-like dangles, the size of a dime that are drawn to look as if they hang down framing her forehead! It makes me want to ask this GYPSY KITTY to tell me my fortune! Maybe a snowglobe could make a nice pretend crystal ball for MAKE BELIEVE PLAY!
