Customer Reviews

bought for grand children ... they love it along with other books for kids about classical composers and CD's that I picked for them. I also bought them a Cd player of their own so they can listen to various passages of music on their own ... they love it all and ask each other when hearing a piece whether it is Mozart or Beethoven or ... - grkids range from 4 to 9

Delightful read, wonderfully colorful. entertaining and informative. The illustrations make it attractive to youngsters to pick up and read on their own. Humor is a good catalyst for learning. I use these for planning my fine arts program.

My son and I enjoy this music series; Mozart, Beethoven, and so on ... very much. Great music history introduction for kids. This is my son's collection and he loves to show to his friends and music teacher. It is witty and funny to read. Good job on illustrations. Fun! Highly recommended!

As a teacher, I love this series! My goal is to teach my 3rd graders about the famous artists and composers. This series makes it easy, fun, and interesting!

So many of my piano students, especially the younger ones, really are intrigued by these stories. The pictures are colorful and fun

This is a good resource book for our homeschool library. My son actually chooses the Getting to Know. ...Books for bedtime stories.
