Customer Reviews

What a darling, darling book! I bought it as a gift for a little boy I am sponsoring in Columbia. I was looking for a bilingual Spanish/English book and was thrilled to find a section of bilingual books on !

Nice story in English. We purchased the English/Spanish version for member of family who is fluent in Spanish. I personally cannot vouch for the translation, but she and our one and three year old enjoy reading and listening in Spanish. Quality is comparable to paperback Curious George books in English only. i would buy it again and recommend the book, Curious George at the Aquarium.

Just finding popular titles for kids that are bilingual is great. The kids are always willing to listen if it Curious George, even if they don't totally understand. The reason I can't give then 5 stars is that they could use a translation that is more generic. Some of the words they use are not the most common or understandable. Mexican Spanish tends to have those types of words, they use different ones and though grammatically correct it makes it a bit harder to reinforce the Spanish as I use different words when I speak to them. After reading them once I now just change the words to match the ones I normally use. They could have done a slightly better job, however, it is a great great book and I am glad they are doing more.

This is a really cute story and my 2-year-old enjoys it but there are a lot of grammatical errors in the Spanish translation (e.g. the text says "habia pinguinos" instead of habian pinguinos, ..."que habia del otro lado de la pared" instead of al otro lado, "adonde fueron" instead of adonde se fueron).

My daughter-in-law was very happy with this book. She wanted bilingual books for her two year old daughter. Her daughter loves Curious George. It was two-fold great. She was very happy with the selection. Yes, I would recommend this product to others.

I Love to read to my kids and this graphics are great. I wish all the parents will read to their kids and keep them smart

I love bilingual books and the story is great. But, the reason I only gave it three stars is because in the Kindle version you are unable to view only one page at a time. It is as if two full pages were scanned as an image and you cannot zoom, either. This means both the text and pictures are hard to see and my toddler's attention is lost.

This is a good book but the moral of the story is out in left field. George sneaks into the zoo and allows all these animals to escape and wreak havoc. Then amid all of the chaos he saves a baby penguin that fell into the water as a result of the melee caused by George. George is rewarded for his behavior. I probably would have put him down.
