I read this to my class of 5th graders, and they loved it! Afterwards, I couldn't pry it away from them and I had to make a sign-out sheet for it so that everyone could get a turn. It really brought to life what we were reading about in our history books.

I'm a fifth grade teacher covering central and South America before the Spanish Conquest.

Although this text isn't very rigorous, it's a great introduction to the Mayans, and has fun text features to build interest. It'd be nice to have a set to use in small groups.

I bought this book before our trip to chichen Itza/ Uxmal to get an idea about the Mayan culture. It's geared towards kids but I, as an adult, got a lot of information out of it as well. I didn't want to read more than that. It is focused mostly on the Mayan priests and life during the Mayan era. Very brief but informative. Very colorful illustrations as well.

My kids found this the most interesting book we read about Mayan culture before going on a trip to the Yucatan.
