This is the second year I have ordered Susan Branch's desk calendar and I absolutely love it. The artwork is quaint and cheerful. Each page is made of nice thick paper. The calendar boxes are big enough to write in. There is a nice space for notes and in the corner there is a 12 month calendar, which I really like instead of just having the month before and after listed. I am not a super artsy-crafty person, but would love to use some of the artwork after finished with the calendar. If you have any ideas of what you could do, please post a comment below.

I love this calendar! I buy a new calendar every year to hang in my kitchen so I can keep track of my kids activities. This is by far my favorite. The paper is extra thick like cardstock. It is very well made. I would recommend this to anyone looking for something cute and fun. I love the quotes on each month. The border at the top is part of each individual page so it comes off clean.

Love this calendar, it's perfect to have in front of me when I'm super busy and need to know just what I'm doing day to day. It's whimsical, so it gives me pleasure in seeing what each months artistic presentation will bring me. I will be a continuous purchaser of this style calendar! Absolutely adorable and colorful!

I bought this for our daughter, who is an activities director at a medical facility. She hangs it on the wall of the dining/activity hall, using it to post future activities. The watercolor images are chock-full of everything delightful and heart-felt. It's a winner!

Great calendar - keeps the family organized - it is a wonderful on the counter - brings a smile to my face with the drawings and sayings. Susan Branch is a wonderful person for the way she creates joy and peace...

I haven't opened the blotter yet - I'm protecting it until the new year - but it is on my computer desk.

All the thumbnails are lovely and Susan's creations are always special, so I'm looking forward to January!

The paper is high quality; the artwork is beautiful. I love seeing this calendar on my desk. I just ordered my calendar for 2017 although it's not released until August 2016; I wanted to make sure I got one.

You just can't beat the card stock quality paper these are made with. So that means no rolling corners and ink bleeds. The pages still look good when the next month rolls around. Very pleased!
