Customer Reviews

I just got this book today and am very dissapointed. I was looking for a book with some traffic signs my son sees in the streets. Instead there are just pictures of mostly vehicles, which is ok, but not related to signs at all. Here is what is inside: back of police car, a photo of fire station entrance, an ambulance, three taxis in a row, a bus stop with approaching bus, a school bus, a school crossing guard, a sign of railroad crossing, a horse in the zoo standing next to "horses" sign, the word PARK written on a fence, a lifeguard standing next to swimming pool, a changing cabin with the word BEACH on it, a street vendor with ICE CREAM on the window, somebody's hand holding a pizza in front of window saying PIZZA, a litter box, then another one, a supermarket entrance, lemons on sale 4 for 1 dollar, a door with the word PULL on it, then another with PUSH, a parking lot entrance, a parking lot exit, car wash, a used cars dealer, a bicycle, the sign BUMP on the road, CONSTRUCTION sign, ROAD CLOSED and STOP sign. For me it is totally useless and I will have to search again for what I need.

Don't bother. My son, who's really really into signs, was excited about this book, but after looking at it, actually said he didn't like it and to donate it to goodwill. It's just random pictures and not actual signs

We commute daily in the car and my son loves to "read" street signs so he loves this book.

I'm a speech language pathologist and I love using this book with my emerging readers who are just beginning to identify "words" by their visual shapes. The photographs are extra appealing because they are immersed in the real context - giving the child extra support.

my 4 year old grandson is having lots of fun with these signs, good quality,

I purchased this book for my son who has Autism. He loves signs of all kinds and he has enjoyed this book very much.
