Customer Reviews

My toddler is absolutely in love with the Franklin books. They are beautifully illustrated and they are the perfect length for a bedtime reading. You can stop and discuss these stories with the young kid and relate them to real life behavior and they are a great teaching tool.

This entire Franklin series is fun. My kid had lots of fun hearing all the lovely stories from me. Also, each story teaches nice things. Everything in these books is just what I would want in a story book for my kid. Just the right amount of text, matched with lovely pictures, and a meaningful theme.

Franklin is every young child's friend. They can instantly connect with the young turtle's sense of adventure and enjoy watching him work through familiar problems and solve them in his own way. All of them have been authored by Paulette Bourgeois and illustrated by Brenda Clark. They obviously made a wonderful team, since they have sold over 60 millions copies in over 30 languages. The stories are engaging and the pictures delightful. I love these books!!!

Franklin's Secret Club is a good book for people that like Franklin. It is about a club but Franklin hears about a different club. But that is all I will tell. Oh I forgot this is a great book for character counts! Franklin said no to beaver about his club so beaver said no to him. Well that's all.

This book is an exciting and educational book typical of the Franklin series. Franklin's secret club teaches children the value of including everyone and the benefit of having everyone's different ideas. Colourful large pictures and interesting events make the lesson an easy one to learn.

It was a cute book for my son. He is going to second grade and I think the book kept his attention and he understood the story well.

In this Franklin book it helps teach children how it feels to be 'left out' or if you are left out how sad you can be. How important it is to include all your friends when you are doing stuff.

My son is 6 and enjoyed this book. We took turns reading it. He was able to sound out most words with little help. He is on a 1st grade reading level.
