Customer Reviews

Calling all Warriors fans, This truly deserves a five stars; I would give more if possible. Erin Hunter has added many astonishing twists which add suspense to the story. The ending could not have been better. After reading the first page, I was hooked onto the book, and I only stopped reading when it was time to eat. This book was the best book I have ever read. Want to know why? Buy the book! or you could read finish this carefully crafted review...SPOILER ALERT...Like most of you know, Alderpaw is now Alderheart. Sparkpaw is now Sparkpelt, though Graystripe wanted her to be named SparkFIRE after Firestar (and so do I). I officialy loathe/want to kill Onestar. ShadowClan was greatly impacted by this new sickness known as YELLOWCOUGH!!!!!!The only cure was lungwort, which could only be found on the moor, but Onestar stubbornly refused to give Puddleshine the cure. By the way, Littlecloud died and Leafpool taught PuddleKIT how to be a medicine cat, and his medicine cat name is JOHN CENA!!! Just kidding! It's Puddleshine. In the end, Kestrelflight and Harespring had to betray Onestar and give ALL the other medicine cats the lungwort.ShadowClan had too many apprentices, and some of them (NeedleTAIL) joined the rogues. Yes, the rogues that drove out SkyClan and tracked Alderheart back to their territory.ShadowClan lost their deputy Crowfrost to yellowcough, and two other cats also died. Many warriors in ShadowClan decided to join the rogues, and all that was left of the REAL ShadowClan was Rowanstar, Tigerheart (deputy) and Tawnypelt.By the way, Littlecloud died, and the new medicine cat is Puddleshine.The rogues and the ShadowClan cats who joined them are now the 'new ShadowClan'!!!
