Cars enthusiasts will love this :) especially little ones. Basic concepts, not long boring paragraphs that will lose young bedtime listeners. Bright images that capture the interest of those who can't read yet.

Such a cute story. Got this for my 3 year old who is obsessed with Lightning McQueen right now. This is a great story about Lightning, Mater and the tractors. It also teaches about friends working together and helping each other out. The words on the pages aren't too lengthy and it holds my sons attention very well. The pictures are done well and fit with the words on the pages. My son wants to read this multiple times a day. Great story for any kid who is into Lightning McQueen.

Can't beat these Little Golden Books! This helped my son get back into reading because they were about his favorite characters! It's a sweet story about Mater and Lightening that I don't get tired if reading to him. Love it!

As far as golden books go, this one is terrible. In one tiny book they manage to recycle a movie plot line not once but twice. First Mater and Lightning ruin a newly paved road, then the tractors they let out ruin it again once it's fixed. The whole book is Doc saying "this road needs to be fixed by tomorrow!" There is no real tractor trouble to be found. If you are considering any other Cars Golden Books instead, go for those.

The price was a bit high for what they are. However my grandsons love these books so that makes it worth it. I would rather see a set of three to ten books with a better price. I would recommend these books for kids from one up to maybe six.

The story line is boring, and grammar is questionable. I should have gotten something else. My toddler is only somewhat interested in this book.

My grandson loves Cars - this book was perfect. He's 3 yr old and finds the story and pictures fun. I actually love Cars, Mater being my favoriteI haven't found a Little Golden Book I didn't like.

We got this book for our son for his 2nd birthday. From the Saturday of his party through Sunday and into Monday, we have read this over and over, about 20 times. Sure every now and then, we must hide books so he doesn't wear us out reading the same one over and over, but when it's a brand new book and the love your child shows for it, there is not a better reward!
