

The book was found

Go, Dog. Go! (Big Bright & Early Board Book)

Synopsis

A beloved Bright and Early Board Book by P. D. Eastman, now in a larger size! A sturdy board book edition of P. D. Eastman's Go, Dog. Go!, now available in a bigger size perfect for babies and toddlers! This abridged version of the classic Beginner Book features red dogs, blue dogs, big dogs, little dogs "all kinds of wonderful dogs" riding bicycles, scooters, skis, and roller skates and driving all sorts of vehicles on their way to a big dog party held on top of a tree! A perfect gift for baby showers, birthdays, and happy occasions of all kinds, it will leave dog lovers howling with delight!

Book Information

Series: Big Bright & Early Board Book

Board book: 24 pages

Publisher: Random House Books for Young Readers; Brdbk edition (August 25, 2015)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 0553521098

ISBN-13: 978-0553521092

Product Dimensions: 5.3 x 0.5 x 7.2 inches

Shipping Weight: 10.9 ounces (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 4.5 out of 5 stars See all reviews (692 customer reviews)

Best Sellers Rank: #10,155 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #88 in Books > Children's Books > Animals > Dogs #108 in Books > Children's Books > Cars, Trains & Things That Go #238 in Books > Children's Books > Classics

Age Range: 3 - 7 years

Grade Level: Preschool - 2

Customer Reviews

I love the original version of Go, Dog. Go! This is not the same thing: my wife bought this board book thinking it would be as delightful as the original, but as soon as you open it you'll realize that the story is completely gone, the characters are gone, the excitement and wonder is gone. All that are left are some pictures and disjointed prose that fail to impress. I first read this book about 40 years ago; it has made an indelible impression on me. I started reading GDG (the original version) to my son when he was a few months old--he loved it. I tried reading the board version (this edition) to him about the same time--he and I both hated it. Stick with the original; don't bother with this one.

I was well into my 30s before I realized that this was not a Dr. Seuss book. Given that it's issued in the same size and binding, I'd always assumed it was written by Seuss. My realization that it was written and illustrated by P.D. Eastman cleared one of my largest childhood confusions: I loved "Go Dog Do," and merely liked "The Cat in the Hat." Years later I realize that Eastman's art is funny, while Seuss's is fantastic, and I prefer the former to the latter. As another reviewer mentioned, you can stare at these dogs for a long time -- there's incredible depth to the expressions and postures of these seemingly simple illustrations. The insomniac dog who sleeps through the next morning's reveille is a favorite! The repetitive narration is similarly hypnotic, and you'll quickly find some of the expressions creeping into your every day dialog. All in all, my very favorite childhood book, and one of the few that I still re-read a few times a year. [Ã Â©2000 hyperbolium dot com]

No need to repeat what others have said about this book. Simply put: avoid this rewritten, watered-down sham of a book and go out and buy a copy of the real "Go Dog Go" which is one of the greatest children's books of all time.

My all time favorite children's book. Big Dog. Little Dog. My son's first word was "dog". I loved this book when my teens were little and my little one (currently 6 Ã Â months) will sit through most of this book (sometimes all) when I read it to her now. It is a great "first reader" as the words are common and the pictures offer help in that when one reads "One big dog going in." and "Two little dogs going out." the picture shows just that. There are red, yellow and green trees, dogs "over the water", dogs "under the house" and lots more word pictures that are fun to read and easy to learn by. The three dogs having a party on a boat at night is just about my favorite line but I still get the most fun when it is night and the dogs are supposed to be asleep and one little one is laying in bed with his eyes wide open. Simply put every child should have this book in their library and reading it to a child should start at a very young age. My highest possible recommendation.

Look at the cover of this Bright and Early Board Book...does it say "Abridged" or "Adapted"? NO, to discover that fact, one has to look carefully at the fine print on the inside of the cover. And even then, what Random House says is "Originally published in a different form as 'Go Dog Go'" instead of a more honest "Abridged and Adapted from 'Go Dog Go'". This is deceptive marketing at its absolute worst. If this were food for the stomach rather than food for the mind, the FDA would long ago have ordered Random House to cease and desist this sort of misleading behavior or face the consequences. I am old enough to remember the difference between a book labeled "by P.D.

Eastman" and a book labeled "by P.D. Eastman (Abridged)." There was a day when publishers felt compelled to be honest about their product, which allowed us consumers to easily make an informed choice about what we wanted to buy. I for one still want that choice from publishers and urge any and all of you who care about books to not purchase this Random House Bright and Early Board Book, at least until they are a little more honest in their practices.

When I was three or four years old I thought Go Dog Go was the finest piece of literature ever written. I wanted it read almost every single day. I loved the pictures, I loved the words, I loved the story and I loved the characters. I memorized the text and recited it along whoever was reading, and when I was four I learned to sight read all the words in it and proudly read it to my parents instead. Unlike many books for preschoolers, it has a real plot, and it's a funny and relatively sophisticated plot at that. My three younger siblings all loved it too, and I was happy to take over a share of the Go Dog Go reading duties from my parents. Every four year old deserves to have a copy of this book and someone special to read it to them.

Eastman's "Go, Dog. Go!" is a wonderful book. BUT THIS IS NOT IT! This book is a small board book that has most of the original illustrations and a completely different text. It is not an "adaptation" of the original text; it is something completely different and far less enjoyable. It even uses words that are not in Eastman's original eighty-word set (a major issue when dealing with beginning readers). If you love "Go, Dog. Go!", as I do, buy it! But this is not it.

Download to continue reading...

The Big Box of Bright and Early Board Books About Me (Big Bright & Early Board Book) The Little Red Box of Bright and Early Board Books (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) The Little Blue Box of Bright and Early Board Books by Dr. Seuss (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) Big Dog . . . Little Dog (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) Go, Dog. Go! (Big Bright & Early Board Book) Ve, Perro. Ve!: Go, Dog. Go! (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) (Spanish Edition) The Foot Book (Big Bright & Early Board Book) Fast Train, Slow Train (Thomas & Friends) (Big Bright & Early Board Book) Thomas and Friends: My Red Railway Book Box (Bright & Early Board Books) Fox in Socks: Dr. Seuss's Book of Tongue Tanglers (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) Mr. Brown Can Moo, Can You : Dr. Seuss's Book of Wonderful Noises (Bright and Early Board Books) The Eye Book (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) The Ear Book (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) The Tooth Book (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) Dogs: Dog Care- Puppy Care- How To Take Care Of And Train Your Dog Or Puppy (Dog Care, Puppy Care, Dog Training, Puppy Training) Are You My Mother? (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) Hand, Hand, Fingers, Thumb (Bright & Early Board Books) ¿ Eres Mi Mama?

(Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) (Spanish Edition) Put Me In the Zoo (Bright & Early Board Books(TM)) Fred and Ted Like to Fly (Bright & Early Board Books(TM))

Dmca