My First Trip To The Post Office (My First Adventures (Paperback))

Synopsis

This engaging book explains how a letter gets from one person to another in a way that beginning readers will find educational and enjoyable. Using a fictionalized approach, this book follows a child's letter from the day it is written to the day it is delivered. Through a relatable story, bright illustrations, and accessible text, young readers follow along as the letter is taken to the post office.

Customer Reviews

This was perfect as a joke gift for my 24 year old who has some issues with the US Postal Service! Would work well with a pre-schooler too. :)

It's easy to see, the Children in my core K class enjoy it a great deal!

Goes great with my Community Helper Unit.
