Customer Reviews

Gosh, I couldn't disagree more with the comment just written. As parents to two young children, we absolutely adored this book. The animals are incredibly cute, we loved the wording - Sally Lloyd-Jones has an INCREDIBLE gift with prose, and the book gave such a sweet and innocent treatment to a subject that so often vexes tired, potty-training moms and dads. My youngest was beside herself with giggles, and was eager to use the loo after the second read. (They insisted on a second read within minutes of opening the box from .) We are huge fans and recommend this book to any parents of young, animal-loving children.

What a fun book to share with your littles who are trying to figure things out in this department. A major plus if they love animals!! SLJ does not disappoint, and it's nice to see her story illustrated by such a talented artist. Perfect pairing if you ask me!! Love it.

The ONLY thing wrong with this book is that it is 20 years too late...for my kids. My sons would have snorted with laughter reading this. Sally Lloyd-Jones' British humor and creative motivation gives parents a helping hand with this potty crowd. And brings skipping back into vogue. LOVE the last page!! I love seeing her team up with Anita Jeram, from 20 years ago, who illustrated the great "Guess How Much I Love You"!! I bought "Skip to the Loo" as a gift and can not wait to give it.

All of my childhood I have been singing this song and had no clue what it was about! So every time that this song is sung it is about going to the bathroom! I feel either really enlightened or really naive. Either way the book is adorable. Since the song is catchy, it may help with potty training.

Fantastic book! Anything Sally Lloyd-Jones writes is a keeper. I have probably given away 30 copies of her books to friends and family. So glad to see this new book with great illustrations. Keep up the good work!

This is a sweet, gentle, silly and fun book to read with young children. Potty humor is always big with kids, and this is a way to indulge, enjoy and potty train all at once!

Here's a very cute picture book that is perfect for a child ready to start potty training. The animals in this book are all into potty training so hopefully your youngster will also get the message too! My granddaughter is now ready for this book so it is in the mail next week...with any luck she'll want to join the creatures in the book!!!

My daughter LOVES this book. She sat on her potty for 20+ minutes because she wanted to hear this story again and again. Sweet illustrations. She loved choosing her favorite potty on each page with potties. Great book to get your toddler excited about potty training.
