

The book was found

Look Alikes Jr.

Synopsis

Welcome to Look-Alike Land, where the more you look, the more you see! Like its predecessor, Look-Alikes Jr. features 3-D picture puzzles, but this time invites even the youngest child to join in the fun by featuring simpler, easier-to-find look-alikes in childlike settings. There are 11 scenes - house, parlor, kitchen, bedroom, school bus, classroom, construction site, movie lobby, train, farm, and rocket - each with 50+ objects to identify (700+ in total). Look for a cement mixer made out of a mustard bottle, kitchen cabinets made out of cakes of soap, and a bed built with crayons and pasta! Fun for all ages. This best-selling book is back with a brand new series design and a striking new cover. --This text refers to an alternate Hardcover edition.

Book Information

Hardcover: 32 pages

Publisher: Little, Brown and Company; 1st edition (1999)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 0316812617

ISBN-13: 978-0316812610

ASIN: 0316890731

Product Dimensions: 0.4 x 9.2 x 12.2 inches

Shipping Weight: 1.8 pounds

Average Customer Review: 4.8 out of 5 stars See all reviews (117 customer reviews)

Best Sellers Rank: #2,209,423 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #73 in Books > Children's Books > Activities, Crafts & Games > Activity Books > Hidden Picture

Customer Reviews

I haven't purchased this yet, just have the library copy here. I heard about the adult version when it first came out, but didn't know there was a Look-Alikes for kids. I don't know what the age recommendation on this it, but my 3 1/2-yr-old is absolutely fascinated by it! Guess what he's getting for Christmas! And since I love things like this, everytime he says, "Mommy, come look at my library picture book" I drop what I'm doing and sit down with him. To me, that is the ultimate compliment - this book has prompted me to sit and concentrate on spending time with my child more often, and that's priceless. And believe it or not, most of the objects in the pictures aren't that obvious to adults, so when I point them out to him (excited that I myself found them), he's absolutely delighted. We've tried to push toys on our son that are not passive, where he sits and watches a battery-operated thingy do whatever it does, toys that encourage active participation and imagination, and I can't imagine anything better than this book. Just my thought, but I think this book and the original Look-Alikes are invaluable tools for teaching people of all ages to think outside the box, shift your perception, and that's something that's good for all of us! Guess you can tell that I can't say enough good things about this, Ms. Steiner is an absolute genius.

I bought this book for my nephews and niece (ages 11, 9 and 4) who came to visit this summer. I was so excited at purchase! The incredibly clever scenes take hours to comb through, and you really view a lot of these objects differently after seeing the book. (Buildings made of fig newtons; thumbtack glassware at the soda fountain; an upside-down iron as a boat.) However the actual children were a bit blown away. They looked at it and were interested, however many of the objects used were things they'd simply never seen and so couldn't pick out. What 4-year-old can tell that a bunch of tulips is really pistachios on sticks? Even the 11-year-old had never seen a flour sifter and therefore wasn't impressed by the sifter/water tower. On the other hand, their mother (age 34) and my boyfriend (age 33) spent as many hours as I did on this book and are still delighted with it. I personally collect beautiful children's books as a cost-effective alternative to coffee-table books. For my purposes, Look-Alikes is absolutely perfect.

The pictures in this book are just stunning, and so clever. I've had this book for a year now (we keep it in our bathroom) and I've still not found everything! Each photograph is magnificent, and well taken, while the collages - for want of a better name - are really ingenious. Some objects take forever to find - the peanut pony tail, the mushroom car tires, and some are perfectly obvious, though you'd never have considered that a disposable razor could look like a vacuum cleaner. It's beautiful to look at and fun to explore. If only Steiner had left it at that and not tried to write poetry to go with it. The rhymes are unbelievably inane and stilted and take away from rather than add to the book. This edition may actually be too difficult for children, as many adults seem to have trouble finding all the objects. "Look-Alikes Jr." came out soon afterwards and is much simpler, though just as much fun; much more suited to the under 12's and the less patient! This book will last so long and provide so much enjoyment that it's well worth buying for the whole family.

Look-Alikes and Look-Alikes Jr. were show-stoppers at my house this Christmas. Poring over the pictures is an absolutely great activity that everyone, all ages, can join. The only problem we had is that there wasn't room for everyone to look at the book at the same time. Something she doesn't say in the book but does reveal on the CD-Rom: these are photographs of actual dioramas, not photo-or Photoshop-collages. Amazing!!

This is a book that has been entertaining to all family members from the age of 9 to 78 years of age. Each person who picks it up cannot bear to part with it. The colors and photo layouts of each page are filled with warmth and depth. Even without close scrutiny the immediate "feel" of the photos is that you are glimpsing into a moment of time long gone. There is an "old world" feel to the pictures. Upon closer review you are repeatedly amazed at how your eye first deceived you. Absolute creative genius is what makes this book one to purchase-for any age. Especially wonderful for those who love puzzles and DETAIL. No detail is left out and no detail is left to its own nature. A twist on reality that delights you with every turn of every page. A must buy for sure.

This is a wonderful book. My ten year old son loved it! He spent hours looking at all the pictures and trying to figure out how they were made. You can see something new in each incredible picture every time you look at it! Our school library has ordered several copies. The creativity in this book is just too much fun.

My son received this for his 9th birthday. The adults loved it as much as he did. My mom ordered several more copies to use as a games at "grown-up" parties. Even the little ones liked it because you don't need to be able to read. This is a great book for all ages and well worth the money.

Download to continue reading...

Look-Alikes Look-Alikes Jr. : Find More Than 700 Hidden Everyday Objects Look Alikes Jr. Shrek 2 (Look and Find) (Look and Find (Publications International)) Look and Find Activity-Book #2 (Look and Find (Candle Books)) Look and Find Activity-Book #1 (Look and Find Activity Books) Look and Find: Disney's Cars (Look and Find (Publications International)) National Geographic Kids Look and Learn: Baby Animals (Look & Learn) The Look-It-up Book of Presidents (Look-It-Up Books) Look, Look! All by Myself (Little Critter) (Look-Look) National Geographic Little Kids Look and Learn: People! (Look & Learn) Look Inside a Bee Hive (Look Inside Animal Homes) The Look-It-Up Book of Explorers (Look-It-Up Books) And Everyone Shouted, "Pull!": A First Look at Forces and Motion (First Look: Science) Plant Stems & Roots (Look Once, Look Again Science Series) Happy Easter, Little Critter (Little Critter) (Look-Look) The Kids' College Almanac: A First Look at College (Kids' College Almanac: First Look at College) Create a Capsule Wardrobe: Look Great and Elegant with Your Minimalistic and Super Organized Capsule Wardrobe: (Know What to Wear and How to Look Fabulous by Having a Great Sense of Style!) ZeroZeroZero: Look at Cocaine and All You See Is

Powder. Look Through Cocaine and You See the World. (Penguin History American Life)

Dmca