My 5 year old daughter loves Strawberry Shortcake and watches her show all the time. I thought this book would be great for her because she takes ballet lesson. The book is fun and very engaging for smalls kids. The story is easy to follow, the pages are bright, colorful and the moral of the story is about friendship, paying attention, and having confidents, which is great for little kids to know the meaning of. My daughter loves this book and highly recommend it for young kids.

just wish you could enlarge the photos! Otherwise she loved it and would recommend it for any strawberry shortcake/ballet fan

My daughter loves this book. She loves anything ballet and anything Strawberry Shortcake. I hate this book. Strawberry is jealous of her friend getting to be in the ballet performance, so her friend lies about being sick so Strawberry can take her place. Not a great message for kids.

My 3 year old is a big Strawberry shortcake fan. and she loves books... thought this was the perfect stocking stuffer idea. Beautiful pictures & story line. This will be a hit with her 4 sure.

I loved Strawberry Shortcake in the 80's, she sure has changed over the years. This was a sweet story of friendship, my daughter really enjoyed looking at the bright and colorful pictures.

Such a wonderful message about friends caring about and including others! My daughter is 3.5 and this is one of her favorite books. Great addition to our strawberry collection!

My daughter is a Strawberry Shortcake fan! She also loves ballet books, so this is the perfect combination. This book is not too long and holds her interest.

Got this for my niece to keep her occupied on a plane trip. it was just a short little book, without any fun bells or whistles and it was quite short. She enjoyed it for two minutes, which for the price just didn't seem worth it.
