Customer Reviews

We first bought the "My First Words: Let's Get Talking" book by DK publishing. It was the only book our toddler liked. So at about 20 months when language development was really taking off, we also purchased "My First Busy Home", "My First Animals", "My First Colors" and "My First Farm". All of them are great. I will repeat what another reviewer said, some of the photographs are reused in the books, but not so that you feel like its the same book. The pages are bright, colorful and filled with photographs of real things, not illustrations (that was important to us)! Our toddler's favorites are the Animals and Farm book, followed closely by the Words and Busy Home book. Colors is currently at the bottom of the list. If your toddler is as rough on board books as ours is, I'd recommend reinforcing the spine with packing tape. That's not a fault of these books, just well-used board books in general!! also read someone complain about the Farm book having milk and cheese on the goat and cow pages, but no bacon on the pig page. To clarify, NONE of the animal pages show meat products of farming. There's wool for the sheep page; eggs from chickens and geese; milk and cheese from goats; and milk, cheese and butter from cows. There aren't any lamb chops or steaks shown, so it's consistent- only non-meat products of animal husbandry are shown. I personally don't have a problem with it.

What a great book..It has so many different variations of each color contained on their own page. I especially like that each page can be instantly accessed by the way the tabs are arranged around the sides. Just brilliant!-I ordered 4 more as gifts for friends because I really like the book that much!

The only color book we have for our kids is one of those tiny 1.5 x 1.5 ones. I had seen the number version of this book before, and while I wasn't interested in purchasing that one, I was interested in both colors & "first words". I love these books! I love the tabs, so if your child is interested in a specific page you can quick-flip there. My husband uses the tabs to turn the pages, says it's easier than normal books that way. It's a really nice size. I like all the different objects pictured, that they're labeled (some objects in our other colors book are hard to identify tbh). I love love love love love colors! And this book :)

My children love these books. We have the Farm book and my son, who is now 4, would read it over and over again. I purchased this book for my 2 year old daughter and she loves pointing and naming all of the objects. Great colors and pictures and we like that each page is dedicated to a certain color. These books are fun to flip through and the construction seems like it will hold up through much use.

This is a really awesome book. There are so many things in here that you don't think of being in a kids book, which is great for learning new words. My 18 month old grabs our hands and has us point to each while she says each word.

This is a great book, very bright and lots of colors. I bought this to read my 18 month old and teach her colors, but it's actually a little advanced for smaller children. It has pictures of things that smaller kiddos wouldn't be familiar with. She's already learning some colors but we won't really be ready for this book for a while.

My 1 year old LOVES this book. This is a book he has in the car with him every day and loves to point out all the images. This book is helpful to demonstrate colors since EVERYTHING on each page is one color, leaving no room for confusion.

I purchased this for my 16 month old and she totally loves it! She flips through the pages and identifies the items that she knows and I help her with the colors. Soon she will be naming the colors too.
