Customer Reviews

The 2011 quilt calendar with patterns only has five that I would consider making. Usually all twelve are ones that I like but not this time. As usual, the calendar has large squares to keep track of daily life. Each quilt is shown on a full page and the bottom has a full page for the calendar. This page also contains a month before and month after smaller calendar. A tear-out section at the back gives complete instructions for each quilt. It has the quilt size, materials, needed, and cutting and sewing directions. There are plenty of graphics to guide you along and a how-to section on assembling and finishing the quilt. If templates are needed, they are provided as well. The back two pages of the calendar itself give general directions plus tips on how to do applique.

Always buy this for my aunt every year,,she taught me how to quilt and now I think she looks forward to it. I bought it online this year because they are hard to find and now even cheaper to buy online. Shipping was fast and inside the calendar are the patterns so it's a very nice and like a 2 for 1 gift.

This is a gorgeous calendar with much inspiration. Any quilter would be thrilled to receive this as a gift. Non-quilters will also admire the quilts. They're folk art. Everyone needs a calendar and to be able to view a new quilt with each turn of the page for each month would be a special treat. What's even better is that there are instructions to make each quilt. Where else can you get 12 patterns for less than the price of a book? This is a definite YES.

Can always depend on this calendar to be a pleaser. It has been on our daughter's Christmas list for 3 years now. She has been quilting for about 5 years and really enjoys this calendar because it is traditional patterns and includes great patterns/instructions. It is on a nice quality paper.

The best quilting calendar out there. This is probably my 15th year with this calendar. I love it and the free patterns that come with it.
